

For this particular application, this document is not required/applicable.

The Association of Australian Certifiers has provided feedback to the NSW Government regarding this matter in September 2020, January 2021, and February 2021 and as yet it has not been acted upon.

Also, as advised in Fair Trading training on the ePlanning portal, this blank document has been uploaded to enable our office to progress the applicant through the portal.